	Approved For Re	lease 2003/08/06 : CIA-RDP82-0045	57R006900560013-5
	•		FLD
		IONCO BECKER TIAL FRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	REPORT NO. 25X
		RMATION REPORT	CD NO.
COUNTR	Y Germany (Russian Zone)		DATE DISTR. 12 February 19
	Investigation of the T	ransportation	NO. OF PAGES 2 25X1
PLACE ACQUIRE			NO. OF ENG
DATE OI	-		SUPPLEMEN REPORT NO:
OF SEE CON	TRO STATES CUTTURE VIZ CREARING OF THE CRAPION AND DR. MG RECORD. TO SPANDENISHED ON THE MENTS HE ARP NAMER TO AR CLEATIONIZET PETO ARR. TEXTOROGETICS OF THE SORE IS PROPRETED.	on 15 PRO-	ALUATED INFORMATION
1
1.	Walle Erfurt and Macdel	our railroad districts during	heavy-duty flatcars in the the second half of December m at the Operations Department.(
	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the local were frequent. (2)	our railroad districts during of flatcars would become known in Ruednitz, Beeskow, Ducherow their collection points. Loc 10 in Cottbus were not alerte Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture	the second half of December m at the Operations Department.() and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, 4, 5 and od. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders
	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the local were frequent. (2)	ours railroad districts during of flatcars would become known in Ruednitz, Beeskow, Ducherow their collection points. Loc 10 in Cottbus were not alerter Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oder comotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, 4, 5 and cd. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders
2.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives is still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the lock were frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatcars may be attributed. Preparations for employments for possible for the heavy-duty flatcars.	ours railroad districts during of flatcars would become know in Ruednitz, Beeskow, Ducherow their collection points. Loc 10 in Cottbus were not alerte Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oder omotive repair shops. Fracturen on the alleged concentration ted to the following:	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, h, 5 and ed. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient ed piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty ty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special is have been designated.
2.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives at the still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the locomotive repairs made in the locomotive frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatcars may be attributed as Preparations for empiration of these carries for possible for the heavy-duty flatconshipment of heavy trace papers and marthese cars pass through the second papers and the second papers	or grailroad districts during of flatcars would become know their collection points. Locallo in Cottbus were not alerte Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration that the following: loyment of almost all heavy-outer were ordered by the SCC for a ture concentration of the car are were to be used not for minansformers to the U.S.S.R. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railruph Poland, as they were constant of proper papers, the Direct ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers.	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, 4, 5 and and and and the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty aty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special is the have been designated. Ilitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were dis-
2.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve becomotives at a first still being kep cold at a first first for any beauticularly Locomotive repairs made in the locumer frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatears may be attributed as Preparations for empiration of these car areas for possible for the heavy-duty flates shipment of heavy traces for patched to Poland by tance papers and many these cars pass through the still beautiful finese cars pass through the still beautiful finese cars pass through the still beautiful finese cars. (3)	or grailroad districts during of flatcars would become know their collection points. Locallo in Cottbus were not alerte Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration that the following: loyment of almost all heavy-outer were ordered by the SCC for a ture concentration of the car are were to be used not for minansformers to the U.S.S.R. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railruph Poland, as they were constant of proper papers, the Direct ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers, the Direct constant of the SCC without being ack of proper papers.	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, h, 5 and ad. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty aty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special as have been designated. Clitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were dispagiven their proper accepted authorities refused to let dered unfit for transit operatorate Ucheral Hailroads sent necessary inscriptions on the
2.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve becometives a still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locometive repairs made in the lockwere frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatears may be attributed. Preparations for employed tration of these carareas for possible for The heavy-duty flates shipment of heavy trations of the papers and many these cars pass through the control of these cars pass through the cars (3) In none of these cases the comments.	of flatcars would become known their collection points. Locally in Cottbus were not alerted Column No & in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration that to the following: loyment of almost all heavy-during were ordered by the SCC for any were to be used not for mansformers to the U.S.S. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railing heavy heavy as they were considered for papers, the Director of the papers and place the were large-scale operations in	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, h, 5 and ad. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty aty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special is have been designated. Ilitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were distinggiven their proper acceptional authorities refused to let idered unfit for transit operatorate Ucheral kailroads sent mecessary inscriptions on the involved. (1)
2. 3.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives at the still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the lockwere frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatears may be attributed. Preparations for employed tration of these carareas for possible for The heavy-duty flates shipment of heavy trations of the papers and mark these cars pass through the cars pass through the cars pass through the cars (3) In none of these cases the care cars. (3)	of flatcars would become known their collection points. Locally in Cottbus were not alerted Column No & in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration that the following: loyment of almost all heavy-during were ordered by the SCC for any were to be used not for mansformers to the U.S.S. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railing heavy he papers and place the were large-scale operations in atton covering a period of up	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were concive Columns No 2, h, 5 and ad. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty aty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special is have been designated. Ilitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were distinguished authorities refused to let dered unfit for transit operatorate General hailroads sent necessary inscriptions on the new olved. (1)
2. 3.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve becometives a still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locometive repairs made in the lockwere frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatears may be attributed. Preparations for employed tration of these carareas for possible for The heavy-duty flates shipment of heavy trations of the papers and many these cars pass through the control of these cars pass through the cars (3) In none of these cases the comments.	of flatcars would become known their collection points. Locally in Cottbus were not alerted Column No & in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration that the following: loyment of almost all heavy-during were ordered by the SCC for any were to be used not for mansformers to the U.S.S. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railing heavy he papers and place the were large-scale operations in atton covering a period of up	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, 4, 5 and ad. All the locomotive columns, a suffered from insufficient red piston rods and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty aty flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special reshave been designated. Ilitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were distinguished authorities refused to let idered unfit for transit operatorate Ucheral Emilroads sent mecessary inscriptions on the new olved. (1)
2. 3.	Halle, Erfurt and Magdel 1950. Such an assembly The reserve bocomotives at the still being kep cold at 8 in Frankfurt/Oder and particularly Locomotive repairs made in the lockwere frequent. (2) The unfounded information flatears may be attributed. Preparations for employed tration of these carareas for possible for The heavy-duty flates shipment of heavy trations of the papers and mark these cars pass through the cars pass through the cars pass through the cars (3) In none of these cases the care cars. (3)	of flatcars would become known their collection points. Local 10 in Cottbus were not alerte Column No 8 in Frankfurt/Oderomotive repair shops. Fracture on on the alleged concentration on the following: loyment of almost all heavy-curs, were ordered by the SCC for any were to be used not for mansformers to the U.S.S.R. (3) an unusually large number of order of the SCC without being kings. Since the Polish railingth Poland, as they were considered to pare the papers and place the were large-scale operations in ation covering a period of up	the second half of December m at the Operations Department. (and Strasburg/Uckermark were comotive Columns No 2, h, 5 and cd. All the locomotive columns, suffered from insufficient red piston rocks and cylinders on of flatcars and heavy-duty that flatcars, but no concent the entire zone. No special reshave been designated. Clitary purposes, but for the new 90-ton flatcars were disposed authorities refused to let dered unfit for transit operated corate Ucheral Hailroads sent necessary inscriptions on the nwolved. (1)

~ *	Approved For Release 2003/08/96 CIA-RDP 22-00457R006900560013-5
i	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	25X1
(3) 25X1 (4)	kept in Frankfurt/Oder, Beeskow, Uckro, Ruednitz, Ducherow and Strasburg. This information covers a period ending 30 December 1950. No confirmatory information is available.	25X1

Signer 141